
THE
HERMAN EUGENE NETTLES
SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

The vision for providing scholarship funding to promote higher education was set forth by Herman Eugene Nettles. This initiative is a way of recognizing and supporting disadvantaged students in pursuit of higher education. Through his own struggle, he obtained advanced degrees in higher education. As a method of giving back, Herman Eugene Nettles founded the HEN Scholarship Foundation.

THE MISSION

To solicit, receive, and offer scholarship funding through gifts, donations, bequest, and grants for the purpose of providing students with funds to pursue higher education regardless of race, creed or sexual origin.

Herman Eugene Nettles was born February 8th, 1947, in Cincinnati Ohio to Annie Ruth Burgess and Dan Nettles (parents' roots) Monroe City, Alabama.

In 1962, he was an honor student at Washington Adult High School where he was class valedictorian.

In 1965, he was employed as a retail merchandiser for the John Shilitos Company. While still living in Ohio, he enlisted into the U.S. Army. He served overseas for two years in the Viet-Nam war. In 1970, he received an honorable discharge from the military and relocated to New York City. There, he became affectionately known by the nickname "Gene".

He continued his education at several schools toward degrees in higher education. He earned an A.A. degree from the State University of New York, B.A. degree in Early Childhood Education from Pace University, and M.S.W. degree in Social Work from Columbia University.

Purpose

The solicit, receive, and offer scholarship funding through gifts, donations, bequests and grants for the purpose of providing students with funds to pursue higher education regardless of race, creed, or sexual origin.
